A GUIDE TO VINTAGE SHOPS IN Los Angeles

1. 45 Three Modern Vintage 🏠 1051 S Fairfax Ave.

I can't say enough about the owner Staci and her incredible eye for vintage artwork, ceramic, patterns, and Regency furniture. The shop's showroom floor changes often since things sell quickly so you can easily visit on a weekly basis and find new items. Staci loves vintage and especially loves inspiring and helping you find the right pieces for your home.

2. Scout 🏠 8021 Melrose Ave.

Scout is creme de la creme of vintage shops in Los Angeles with high end vintage mixed with high end modern designers. Owner Joey Grana is a tastemaker and expert curator of vintage; anything you buy here will stay a wardrobe staple forever.

3. Jet Rag 🏠 825 N La Brea Ave.

This is one of the best shops if you're a bargain hunter and really enjoy the "thrill of the thrift". Don't miss their $1 sales on Sundays.

4. Antique/Mid Century Row 🏠 Lankershim Blvd. just past Burbank Blvd.

This spot is still under the radar and the spot to go for unique pieces and super low prices. The shops sell at various flea markets on Sundays and most of them are on Chairish if you prefer to shop online. Be prepared to dig through piles of stuff, but don't be afraid to ask if you're looking for something specific. The shop owners are helpful and will pull out items that are hidden away.

5. Play Clothes 🏠 3100 W Magnolia Blvd.

If you're looking for a super cute vintage shop that comes with a shop cat and all the retro vibes, then Play Clothes is your spot. The clothing is sorted by decade making it easy to find pieces. Their specialty is clothing from the 40s to 60s so spend a lot of time in those sections and you'll leave with an incredible assortment of finds.

6. SquaresVille 🏠 1800 N Vermont Ave.

You can't beat the location or the prices here. SquaresVille offers a quirky and unique curated mix of vintage pieces. I come here for concert tees, jeans, and awesome two piece sets - most of which are under $50.

7. deKor 🏠 3191 Glendale Blvd.

deKor is for those looking for rustic-chic furniture and home accessories with a global, bohemian vibe. Owner, Isabelle, has an incredible eye so there is a lot to look at, so give yourself plenty of time to peruse.

8. Lemon Frog Shop 🏠 1202 N Alvarado St.

Lemon Frog is a colorful shop with vintage dresses, accessories and jewelry. Rare finds and low prices.

9. Amsterdam Modern 🏠 134 Glendale Blvd.

Amsterdam Modern has an amazing inventory of mid century modern furniture, lighting and decor. Their inventory is shipped directly from Amsterdam and is sourced from all corners of Holland. Come here if you're looking for notable designs and pieces such as Thonet, Franco Albini, Saarinen, and Adnet.

10. Tavin 🏠 1543 Echo Park Ave.

Tavin is where you should head if you're looking for romantic, bohemian pieces from the 60s and 70s. The shop is dreamy, the clothes are dreamier, which means you'll live out your days living that romantic gypset life. Founded by Erin Tavin, a former actress turned stylist, expertly selects every piece in her shop so you know you're walking out with a gem.

11. Society of St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store 🏠 210 N Avenue 21

This is known as the Costco of thrift stores since it's the largest thrift store in the USA and the prices are unbeatable. Here you'll find plenty of vintage clothes, accessories and furniture, plus a lot of gently used modern pieces. What makes shopping here even better? Funds go to people and families in need.

12. Sunbeam 🏠 106 S Avenue 58

A long time favorite spot for vintage items, Sunbeam helped furnish about half our house when we first bought our home. They have a good collection of mid century modern and regency, plus their modern line of mid century modern inspired pieces.

13. The Hunt Vintage 🏠 5317 York Blvd.

Michael, the owner, offers excellent service and loves to help you find exactly what need. There's a vast selection of mid century furniture items and a steady flow of new inventory at all times. If you like mid-century furniture The Hunt Vintage is a must stop and once you go there you'll keep coming back.

14. Avalon Vintage 🏠 106 N Ave 56 Highland Park

Hit up Avalon when you have a special occasion to attend and you need a personal stylist. Carmen, the owner, will find you pieces that will work for you; she knows exactly how certain pieces will fit you so you have an ultra curated shopping experience. Plus, she carries a wide range of sizes making it a great shop for plus size shoppers.

15. Picky Jane 🏠 906 Meridian Ave, South Pasadena

This is a teeny tiny vintage shop filled to the brim with bohemian finds and treasures. Owner, Simone, finds the best dresses, caftans, and vintage lingerie.

16. HotBox Vintage 🏠 1127 Mission St, South Pasadena

Hotbox has an amazing selection of the cutest vintage jewelry and accessories. Prices are affordable (just a tad bit pricier than thrift stores) so you can shop for a whole outfit without breaking the bank.

17. Pasadena City College Flea Market 🏠 1570 E Colorado Blvd.

I almost hate giving this one away since this is where I find all of my vintage gems, but if you're looking for a low-key flea market filled to the brim with clothes, furniture, decor, books, and vinyl, this is the place to shop. Plus, prices are insanely good!

18. Bonita Interiors 🏠 1700 Evergreen St, Duarte

Another favorite spot for eclectic decor, original artwork, and mid century furniture. Owner Angie's showroom is FILLED with goodies so make sure to schedule enough time to browse through all the things! And if you need help, Angie will help you find exactly what you need.
